Exceptional villa for sale next to the Finca Cortesin golf course, voted Best Golf Resort in Europe, between Marbella and Sotogrande. This sensational property is part of Villas Golfside, an exclusive residential complex of 16 individually designed villas with private pools and gardens, and created by renowned architects. This villa consists of approximately 552 m² on a plot of 2,342 m². With a futuristic style, this majestic house stands out for the combined use of curves and arches in all its corners: from the villa to the pool, also passing through the gardens. The upper floor is a true architectural spectacle. This floor is intended for the exteriors, with large porches where you can enjoy the inspiring views and numerous areas enabled for parking several vehicles. On the lower floor of the villa is the day area. This consists of a spacious living-dining room with access to the outside, with multiple landscaped areas and a swimming pool, and a functional kitchen with a laundry area with access to one of the many patios of the property. This level also consists of the rest area, distributed in 4 en suite bedrooms, all equipped with full bathroom and dressing room. While two of them each have access to a patio, the other two have direct access, in addition to a patio, to the outside where the pool and the wonderful garden that surrounds the property of palm trees and cypresses is located. In addition, the villa is equipped with the latest home automation technology and security system.
